OBJECTIVES

The objectives of PBC related specifically to the purpose and central theme of educating and training the Christian to make his life a unique and distinctively Christian ministry. The general objectives in meeting this goal are that the graduate of PBC will be:

Academically and intellectually competent;

Knowledgeable and capable of rightly dividing the Word and the Truth of God in Biblical studies and exposition;

Scripturally sound and spiritually equipped to serve God with his life;

Above all, able to bring the salvation message of the gospel to the world through a life which is a testimony in character and example to the unsaved people of this world.

Specifically, the following educational objectives will be met by students:

Biblical: The student will be provided with a theologically correct knowledge of the Bible, the tools and skills necessary to communicate its message accurately, and the ability to recognize that the inspired Word of God is indeed "profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

Academic: The student will be provided the educational training from the Biblical perspective which will be:

A general education in English, social studies, mathematics and science;

Practical in its application;

Experiential in its nature;

Designed to make the student competent and prepared academically;

Designed to equip thoroughly the student to pursue God's calling for his life.

Character: The student will be provided with the spiritual leadership and experience which will conform and increase his personal faith and dedication to the Lord Jesus Christ in his Christian walk, character, and testimony to the world.

The student will be able to share openly and wisely the saving knowledge found in the Bible and a commitment for Christ to others, and a living demonstration of Christ's love for the world.

The student will develop a steadfastness in faith preparing him to meet the testing and trials that the Christian is faced with in serving Christ in today's world.

The student will be founded in the Scriptural principles of willing submission to God-given authority in the God-ordained institutions for the home, the church, and the government.
